“Trends in Supplier Markets”

Featuring

Larry Jackson

Vice President - Procurement Operations, Fluor Corporation

Worldwide activity in the energy sector continues at a slow pace. Price, delivery and quality of material and equipment is a critical aspect in successful completion of any project. Larry's presentation will discuss Fluor's view of the markets for materials, equipment and fabrication/construction to determine supplier trends in the world that could impact project costs and schedules going forward into 2017 and beyond.
